If continuing review is required for your research, your project is approved until the expiration date listed above. The investigator will need to submit a request for Continuing Review at least 30 days prior to the expiration date. If the study's approval expires, investigators must stop all research activities immediately (including data analysis) and contact the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs for guidance.

If your study has not been assigned an expiration date, continuing review is not required for your research.

Note: Data collected during a period of lapsed approval is unapproved research and can never be reported or published as research data.

For the duration of the research, the investigator(s) must:

- Submit any change in the research design, investigators, and any new or revised study documents (including consent forms, questionnaires, advertisements, etc.) to the IRB and receive approval before implementing the changes.
- Use only a copy of the IRB-approved consent and/or assent forms. The investigator bears the responsibility for obtaining informed consent from all subjects prior to the start of the study procedures.
- Inform the IRB immediately of an Unanticipated Problems involving risks to subjects or others and serious and unexpected adverse events.
- Report all Non-Compliance issues or complaints regarding the project promptly to the IRB.

Please note that all research records must be retained for a minimum of three (3) years after the conclusion of the project. Once your project is complete, please submit a Request to Close.

If you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Office of Research Integrity and Compliance at 646-7177 or via e-mail at ric_admin@nmsu.edu. Please include your Protocol Number in all future correspondence. Best of luck with your research!

Sincerely,
Chair, Institutional Review Board
